MANY ITEMS OF INTEREST

Gleaned From Various Sources—
Little Points Picked Up By Vigilant Reporters.

Jeweler J. E. Cleaver, who has been seriously ill of gripe, is slowly improving.

There will be no service this evening in St. James' Church but on Sunday the usual services will be held.

Mr. Samuel B. Amos has been confined to his home on Sunnyside the past two weeks, on account of a sore foot.

Walter M. Bowers and family, who have been living in Youngstown, O., returned on Monday to Bedford, where they will reside.

Ross Souser, son of Henderson Souser of Napier, has been appointed postmaster at Rockwood, Pa. The Gazette extends its hearty congratulations.

The adjourned Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Wolfburg charge will be held at the M. E. parsonage, Bedford, on Thursday, March 11, at 2 p. m., with Rev. Faus officiating.

A public demonstration will be held in the orchard of W. S. Madore at Hyndman on Thursday, March 11, and at Levi Wolford's, Buffalo Mills, on Friday, March 12.

This season's largest sale of horses, mules, wagons, buggies, etc., will be held at Stiver's Stables on Saturday, March 20. See advertisement in next week's paper.

Miss Edna McClellan has resigned her position as chief operator of the Bell Telephone Company at this place, previous to her removal to Fostoria, O. Miss Clara Mills will succeed her.

Mail Carrier Sewell W. Rouzer, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Cumberland, is rapidly recovering and expects to return to Bedford some time next week.

Tuesday evening Miss Vesta Brightbill entertained a number of her young friends at her home on East Penn Street. Games and music were indulged in, and light refreshments were served.

A meeting of the suffrage party will be held Tuesday evening, March 16, at 7:30 o'clock in the L. T. L. room. Rev. K. A. Bishara of the Presbyterian Church will give a talk on "The Women of Syria." Everybody is welcome.

Marriage licenses were issued in Cumberland this week to Sylvester Ritchey of Everett and Annie Mary Lake of Bedford; Everett Benton Elliott of Cumberland Valley and Lillie Anderson of Cumberland; and Daniel Webster Shaffer of Brezewood and Ella Gertrude Truax of Enid.

The chicken and waffle supper given at the Union Hotel Wednesday evening was well attended and a very delicious meal was served. This will be one of the features of the hotel during the coming season, and will be announced from time to time.

There were 119 men and boys over fourteen in the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday, all of whom are expected to be present next Sunday to see if the women and girls can do as well. Hear the sermon at 11 o'clock also on "The Divine Ideal of a True Woman." Come at 7:30 and spend "An Hour With Fanny Crosby and Her Hymns."

A very delightful social was given last Friday night at the parsonage by the members of the official board and their wives of the M. E. Church to the new members and probationers of the church. Three-minute talks were given by the heads of the several departments of the church which were much enjoyed by the large assemblage. Music was rendered by the church orchestra. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

The poke bonnet, with its silk-faced trim, ribbon chin streamers and flower-trimmed crown, reviving old memories, can now be seen in the spring millinery openings in Philadelphia and New York. A simple poke bonnet will make a homely face look handsome and winsome. As I believe in patronizing home merchants I shall order my poke bonnet from a Bedford milliner. Not an old poke bonnet, but with blue ribbons on it, but a new one bought at the store. I shall wear it Easter Sunday. I know it will become me; 'tis the kind my grandmother wore.—Phoebe Peters.

Women's Day

Next Sunday, March 7, will be observed at Women's Day in the Methodist Church, and a number of interesting things are planned for the day. At 11 a. m. the pastor will preach upon "The Divine Ideal of the True Woman," while the service beginning at 7:30 a. m. will be "An Hour With Fanny Crosby and Her Hymns." A large women's chorus will take the place of the regular choir in these services. The large number of women expected for the Sunday School will give additional interest to this service, and Miss Vesta Brightbill who will lead the Epworth League at 6:30, is planning to make this one of the most helpful hours of the day.

Through the efforts of the men last Sabbath the attendance and interest in the Sunday School and other services, reached high water mark, and have been the subject of much favorable comment. But with the women enthusiastically at work even larger and better things may be expected for next Sunday.

The Brotherhood Bible Class of St. John's Reformed Sunday School Seven Weeks Old Last Sunday

H. C. Heckerman, John Dull, Harold Smith, Fred Smith, Thomas Stiffler, Guy Bollinger, Ealor Reighard, Calton Heckerman, Meryl Mundwiler, Frank Thompson, Thomas Easter, Neal Middleton, Lloyd Smith, D. V. Diehl, Henry Price, George Arnold, Frank Henderson, Chauncey Howsare, Forest Reighard, Simon Smith, J. F. Bonner, Ira Biddle, Daniel Mervine, H. R. Anderson, Clarence Spidel, Samuel Croil, George Diehl, Lloyd Diehl, Charles Nagler, Jr., Nicholas Mantler, John Yont, Ross Baylor, Monroe A. Evans, W. A. Henderson, R. C. Dunlap, Herbert McMullin, Harvey Wetzel, Ralph Ciallella, Ellis K. Price, Clayton Rose, James Smith, Roy Speicher, John Hall, Fred Wise, Charles Ickes, Fred Baylor, Guy Ritchey, Charles R. Mock, George Sill, Roy Sill, G. E. Hillegass, Earl Swartzwelder, George Smith, Frank Manspeaker, Boyd Mower, Percy D. Smith, Robert Brake, Chester G. Culp, Grant Dodson, Walter Foreman, Roy Carpenter, W. T. Barker, Chester A. Read, Clair Herschberger, Victor E. P. Barkman, R. Frank Taylor, J. C. Earnest, Harry Herschberger, Richard Willoughby, Jacob Cogan, George Carbaugh, Anson Pepple, Harold Bryant, Kulp Metzger, William Nagler, Neilson Pepple, William Snell, S. T. Diehl, Fred May, Charles Weyant, Jr., F. S. Wise, F. O. Reighard, P. W. Smith, J. T. Croil, Harry Carpenter, I. W. Kauffman, J. H. Arnold.

Little did the six young men, who came up to the Reformed Sunday School a little over seven weeks ago and ask for class-room and a teacher, realize that their example that morning would be the beginning of the largest Men's Bible Class in the county. These young men were John Dull, Harold Smith, Fred Smith, Thos. Stiffler, Guy Bollinger and Ealor Reighard, all young men that knew they should have attended Sunday School—all non attendants.

The older scholars looked surprised to see them enter the school and still more surprised to find them hunt a place for themselves, instead of going to the Men's Bible Class. About the time the classes went to their class-room the classes went to their class-room to study their lesson, H. C. Heckerman received the next surprise to be challenged by this new class to be their leader and teacher.

Here was indeed a new bunch, boys who had not been attending Sunday

School and a teacher who had never taught a lesson. How well this "raw" class has succeeded, will be illustrated by the above picture taken Sunday, February 21, after school, it represents $3 out of 97 members enrolled. The class is made up practically by men who have not been attending Sunday School. Many of them never attended. They come from practically every walk of life in this community.

On this Sunday Rev. Eyler preached ed a most interesting sermon to the class on their motto "For Others".

The joy of this work is being manifested by the whole community and by all the other churches and last Sunday was surely THE Sunday School Sunday of years for Bedford.

Any young man in Bedford who has recently not been asked to join some Sunday School Class, has surely been able to hide himself pretty thoroughly.

COMMON SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS

Will be Held at the Various Places on the Last Saturday of March.

The Common School Examinations will be held on the last Saturday of March, 1915.

For admission to this examination, pupils must present a written application signed by the teacher. This application must contain the age of the applicant, name of school attended, branches studied and place where he or she expects to be examined. Teachers should see to it that these applications are in the hands of the County Superintendent by March 20.

Diplomas will be granted to those who pass the examination provided they are fifteen years of age or over. In this examination all of the common school work will be covered with the exception of the subjects of Civil Government and Algebra. If the applicant so desires he may take an examination in these subjects also and receive credit.

Special stress should be placed on Reading, Grammar and Arithmetic. Arithmetic should not be neglected in favor of Algebra. The use of diacritical marks should be thoroughly taught.

Pupils should be taught how to prepare a good manuscript. We do not feel that a common school diploma should be granted to a pupil who cannot write legibly, express himself clearly, and arrange a neat and accurate manuscript. All papers received in these examinations will be inspected by the County Superintendent before diplomas are issued.

Examining boards will receive in confidence a list of questions from the County Superintendent and will conduct the examinations as directed.

Examining boards have been appointed and placed for holding the examinations selected as follows:

Bedford, J. M. Garbrick, E. A. Herschberger.
Baker's Summit, J. G. Kriechbaum, O. G. Snyder.
Defiance, H. H. Brumbaugh, Claude Mitchell.
Rainsburg, E. C. Nycum, Raymond Whetstone.
Centerville, Clyde Rose, Mary Ritchey.
Riverside, R. F. Fetterolf, Harry Barton.
Mann's Choice, P. E. Farmer, Pearl Hillegass.
Steelton, W. F. Benner, H. C. Bowers.

New Buena Vista, Charles W. Egolf, Ada Deaner.
Queen, D. R. Hoenstine, Estella Knisely.
Stonerstown, G. C. Kirk, A. S. Althouse.
Pleasantville, O. H. Davis, Adam Yarnal.
Hyndman, H. D. Metzger, H. C. Mauk.
Artemas, John A. Morse, Ira Robinson.

Clearville, Norman W. Cooper, C. W. Hockenberry.
Schellsburg, George L. Wolfe, Margaret Rock.
New Paris, John K. W. Kramer, Buella Blackburn.
Brezewood, John H. Mellott, M. N. Stailer.
St. Clairsville, Clarence Weyant, Carrie Claycomb.
Fishertown, Lawrence Helsel, Leslie Berkheimer.

New Enterprise, F. R. King, George Croyle, David Ruple.
Chaneyville, Jessa R. Means, Daisy Dicken.

Admission of Non-Resident Pupils to High School

Examinations for admission of non-resident pupils to high school will be conducted by the different high school principals on the first Saturday of April, 1915. All non-resident pupils who are successful in passing these examinations will receive certificates recommending them for admission to any high school in Bedford County. These examinations will be held at Bedford, Everett, Mann's Choice, Hyndman, Hopewell, Defiance, Saxton and Stonerstown.

Teachers having pupils who expect to enter high school for term of 1915-16 should notify the County Superintendent not later than March 20, 1915. Respectfully submitted, Lloyd H. Hinkle, County Superintendent.

MORE FREE LECTURES AT MEN'S ASSOCIATION

Rev. Albert Aune of St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church, will speak at the Drop-In Young Service at the rooms of the Young Men's Association at 2:15 Sunday afternoon. The singing will be accompanied by the orchestra, and the Red Song Books will be used. The meeting is open to all men who wish to attend, and there is no collection. Mr. Aune has not yet announced his subject.

"The second of a series of two lectures on "Personal Hygiene," delivered by Dr. Wilmot Ayres on Tuesday night of last week in the Association's rooms, was well attended. At the request of a number of mothers of young boys, it is probable that Dr. Ayres will deliver these lectures again later in the season. If he can be persuaded to do this, boys from fourteen to eighteen will be admitted.

The power of habit in character building was explained by J. Anson Wright, in a splendid address to men in the rooms of the Association on Tuesday night. Thrift, promptness, industry and sincerity, as habits, were given special attention.

"The Structure That We Raise," was the subject of the address. In speaking on "thrift," Mr. Wright said:

"By 'thrift' is meant that sort of saving which includes earning, and living, and giving. John Wanamaker found work at the age of fifteen in a polishing house at $1.50 a week. In a few years, while companions whose salary was greater than his had saved nothing, he had saved $2,000. With this he started his store.

"Some young men ask how they are to save when they earn so little. I will answer that question if you will first tell me how some young men are able to spend so much when they earn so little. It is the small expenditures that, as a rule, cause the leak—the smokes, the shine, the show and the luncheon after the show and the gay jaunt to the city and the lark with the boys, the ball game, clothes up to the minute in style.

"Now, speculation—the effort to get rich quick—has ruined many a man. He exchanges his savings of years for a scrap of paper of doubtful value, called a stock certificate, or perhaps a deed. It may be stock in a copper mine, or a deed for Texas land, or a Florida orange grove, or an interest in a poultry farm at Halifax.

"The promoter makes the proposition look good, of course. He couldn't fool you with something that didn't look good. The bait looks good to the bass—that's how he comes to swallow the hook.

"As to getting in on the ground floor on a proposition, remember Phil Armour's advice: 'Whenever an oily-tongued promoter whispers that he will let me in on the ground floor, I immediately take the elevator for the roof garden.'

"Where one person has grown rich by speculation, scores have in that way become poor; where one person has remained poor despite slow accumulation by regular saving, scores have in that way become rich. Get the thrift habit. Symon J. Gage said his savings bank account was the corner stone of his fortune."

A Record Breaker

All former records under normal conditions for attendance at church, Sunday School and men's meetings in Bedford was smashed to splinters last Sunday.

The most prominent event of the day was the marching of upwards of 400 men through the streets of Bedford to hear an address in Assembly Hall, under the auspices of the Young Men's Association. The men were headed by the band, led by Prof. S. H. Koontz. A musical program, under the direction of Prof. J. Dale Diehl, was a part of the program. Dr. Richards spoke on "Leading Men to Christ."

Every church in Bedford registered a larger attendance last Sunday than it had on the same Sunday the year before. Most of the churches reported substantial gains over their regular attendance in the past. These gains have been coming along gradually during the past month or two, and it is thought that the high mark has not yet been reached.

Sunday School attendance in four of the churches was larger than it had ever been before. The Methodist Sunday School reported an attendance of 316. The Reformed Sunday School had an attendance of 313. At the Lutheran Sunday School there was an attendance of 187. The Presbyterian Sunday School had an attendance of about 100.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church there were morning and evening services for men—both well attended. At the Reformed Church the seating capacity was taxed to its utmost. The same was true at St. Thomas' Catholic Church. There were unusual attendance at the Presbyterian and Lutheran Churches. At the Protestant Episcopal Church the attendance was close to double the small half-full with which it started out at the beginning of Mr. Aune's pastorate a few months ago. Never before in the history of Bedford was there such a general turning out of church people under normal conditions as was the case last Sunday.

Killed in Mine Accident

On Friday, February 19, Elmer C. Black was killed in the mines at Six Mile Run by a fall of rock. His father, Samuel Black, was working with him at the time, but was only slightly injured. His parents, wife, one child, six brothers and two sisters survive.

AUSTIN MAY OF MANN'S CHOICE

Was Killed on Tuesday While Racing With a Motor Cycle.

While Austin May, a young hardware merchant of Mann's Choice, and two companions, James Kyper and Huston Berry, were out enjoying the magnificent weather and the enticing opportunities for cycling last Tuesday, the temptation to race or speed on the pike near Joseph Souser's grew greater and greater until young May's cycle became unmanageable and he was unable to keep it in the road.

The machine, which must have been going at a very high speed, made a dive for the side of the road, hit a telephone pole squarely in the centre, ran up the pole for eight or ten feet with the young man still on it. The young man came down and fell across the fence which broke every rail in the fence and the fence fell on his body with the motor cycle on the fence.

Mr. Souser was near and saw the accident. He hurried to the rescue of the unfortunate young man but when he got the fence off he could not see a sign of breath. The body was carried to Mr. Souser's home and a doctor summoned, but no medical aid could avail anything. The skull was fractured, face crushed in, neck broken and arms fractured. Blood streamed from his nostrils and mouth while Mr. Souser was hurrying to get the fence removed, a sight which Mr. Souser will never forget.

Mr. May was married to Miss Ada Mowery of Mann's Choice and who has recently recovered from an operation in a Cumberland hospital. He has two sisters, Mrs. S. H. Koontz of Bedford, and Miss Maria, at home, and his parents, Ellsworth and Nettie May, who survive. He was 27 years old.

E. Church at 1 o'clock yesterday. Rev. Rose of the M. E. Church, Schellsburg, officiating, and interment was made in Mt. Olive Cemetery, Mann's Choice.

Turkey in the Great European War

Seeing that Constantinople is gradually becoming a center of the great interest in this war, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church has decided to give a course of three sermonic lectures on "Mohammedanism and its Relation to Christianity." The first lecture will be given next Sunday evening, on "The Life and Work of Mohammed," the great founder of that religion. The second lecture will be on "The Conquest of the World by Mohammedans," the most wonderful conquest in all history. The third lecture will have for its theme "Turkey in the European War." There is nothing as dramatic as the rise and fall of Islam; and humanly speaking, the world has never seen the equal of the illiterate camel-driver prophet of Arabia. The theme of the sermon for next Sunday morning will be: "Is it True That Man Can Only be a Pious Fool or a Smart Devil?" Luke 16: 8.

Married at Cumberland

Last Friday at Cumberland, Frank T. Thompson of this place and Miss Louise S. Leonard of Saxton were united in marriage. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. Emily Thompson, and is employed by the Inquirer Printing Company as a compositor, and is a worthy young man. His bride, who has been living in Bedford for some time, is an estimable young lady. The Gazette extends congratulations.

R. Stayer of Claysburg, Albert Reip of Osterburg, W. S. and David Fetter, Wayne Reighard, Calvin Heltzel, Nym Koontz, Levi Iwiler and E. R. Stayer of Bedford Township, and C. L. Devore of Wolfburg.

Company 1

The Company is busy drilling every Friday evening, and the new recruits are rapidly becoming soldiers. Considerable time is being spent on Guard Duty and other theoretical instruction.

All new members of the Company, and every member who did not qualify as a First Classman or better on the outdoor range, must fire the gallery practice course before they can qualify for the range this year. The gallery will be open every Tuesday evening for gallery practice.

Sergeant Bannet and Corporal Whetstone are the only members of the Company who qualified as Sharpshooters during the past rifle season, making scores of 195 and 192, respectively. Corporal Fletcher scored 189 and is the only member to qualify as a Marksman. These classifications are only obtained by shooting the gallery, the instruction and the record courses. Thirty members of the Company qualified as First Classmen and twenty-two as Second Classmen.

The Rifle Range will be opened earlier than usual this year and it is hoped to qualify many more Sharpshooters and also a number of expert riflemen.

Reception to Men's Bible Class, Lutheran Church

Tuesday evening, March 9th, at 8 o'clock, the men of Rev. Weyant's Bible Class will be given a reception in the chapel of the church, by the teacher of the class. A fine program is being prepared by a committee. New and interesting things will characterize the evening. No man who is a member of the class, or who shall be invited, or is invited, can afford to miss it. The teacher hopes every man, a member or invited by the committee on invitation or by any member of the class, will make an effort to be present at that time. It will be a meeting for men only. Committees are working most earnestly to make this a unique affair in the history of Bedford churches. Remember the date, men, March 9, 1915, at 8 o'clock.

PINE GROVE SCHOOL DEDICATION

On Friday evening, January 15, the new school house of the Pine Grove School District, No. 1, of Woodbury Township, Bedford County, was dedicated by appropriate ceremonies. The School Board of said township, consisting of George W. Clouse, J. H. Haffley, C. H. Sell, B. F. Wagner and Joseph C. Corle, erected a handsome new brick building two and one-half miles north of Woodbury, a few rods from the site of the old building which had been erected for school purposes in 1867 and was used continuously until just prior to the dedication of the new building, the erection of which is such a step in progress in the school work which demonstrates the fact that the aim of the directors has not only been to have the best teachers and best schools in the county but also to have the most comfortable and best equipped school houses for the boys and girls.

The occasion brought together not only the School Directors and the teachers of the township and the patrons of the school and the boys and girls comprising the scholars of the school at the present time, but in addition thereto a large number of other persons, many of whom were former pupils of the school and who are now following various vocations in life, many of whom are teachers.

The following program was rendered: Music, America; Devotional Exercises, Rev. J. C. Stayer; Music, by pupils of the school and others; Address of Welcome, J. H. Haffley; Response, Jesse L. Stayer; Recitation, "Forty Years Ago," Galen R. Sell; Address, Rev. Jacob C. Stayer; Music, by pupils of the school and others; Address, Simon H. Sell, Esq.; Recitation, "School Days," Miss Eva Replogle; Address, Professor L. H. Hinkle, County Superintendent; Music, by pupils of the school and others.

J. H. Haffley, Secretary of the School Board, delivered an interesting address of welcome in a most pleasing manner. His words of encouragement and advice to those interested in school work indicated that he has the welfare of the schools of Woodbury Township at heart and is laboring for the best results that can be attained by the harmonious and united efforts of teachers, patrons and pupils in Woodbury Township.

Jesse L. Stayer, one of the teachers of the township, made an able response to the address of welcome which was demonstrative of zealous and energetic thought applied to school work as a teacher.

Galen R. Sell and Miss Eva Replogle, also two of the teachers of the township, gave well prepared and interesting recitations which were suitably selected and rendered for the occasion. The spirit and able manner in which all performed the duties assigned to them together with the inspiring music rendered was significant of the healthful and interesting school spirit in Woodbury Township and was an inspiration to the speakers of the evening.

Rev. Jacob C. Stayer, the first speaker, was one of the former pupils of the Pine Grove School. Mr. Stayer called the attention of his hearers to the fact that of the boys and girls who were former pupils of the school some are now scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf and are engaged in the many honorable pursuits of life. Mr. Stayer gave the names of the following pupils of this school who later became teachers: Rev. Abraham W. Hawbaker, Rev. John R. Stayer, Rev. Jacob C. Stayer, Miss Leah Hawbaker, Jesse Erb, John A. Over, Mrs. Minnie Over Kagarise, John H. Sell, Cyrus H. Sell, Rev. Harris Guyer, Dr. Irvin C. Stayer, Dr. Maurice C. Stayer, Mrs. Jennie Stayer Kagarise, Mrs. Mary Stayer Groff, Miss Ruth Stayer Hoover, Edward Carper, Lloyd Stayer, Samuel Stayer, Miss Clara Replogle, Miss Mabel Stayer, Galen R. Sell, J. Roy Sell, Jesse L. Stayer, Miss Eva Replogle, Miss Mary Hinton, Miss

COLDS AFFECT THE KIDNEYS

Many Bedford People Have Found This to be True.

Are you wretched in bad weather? Does every cold settle on your kidneys?

Does your back ache and become weak?

Are urinary passages irregular and distressing?

These symptoms are cause to suspect kidney weakness.

Weakened kidneys need quick help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for weakened kidneys.

Bedford people recommend them. Miss Susie Fletcher, 113 W. Penn St., Bedford, says: "I suffered from a severe case of kidney complaint. I had heavy, dull pains in my back and side, so that I was unable to bend over or lift. These troubles bothered me more severely when I caught a cold. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Dull's Drug Store, and soon got relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Fletcher had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Ad. 26124

Serious Catarrh Evils Yield to Hyomei

Also One of the Best Remedies for Head Colds or Bronchitis.

Be wise in time and use Hyomei at the first symptom of catarrh, such as frequent colds, constant frog in the throat, difficult breathing or disagreeable nasal discharges. Do not let the disease become deep-seated for it often causes the loss of hearing.

Hyomei is nature's true remedy for catarrh—you breathe it so that the medication goes right to the sore and inflamed tissues lining the air passages of the head and throat. Its antiseptic healing must begin at once.

It's no bother to use Hyomei. Simply put a few drops of the liquid into the inhaler, that comes with every complete outfit, and breathe it. You will feel better after the first breath of Hyomei. It clears the head and throat like magic.

There is nothing easier, quicker or more satisfying than Hyomei. It is not merely a relief for catarrh but a sure and lasting benefit. F. W. Jordan, Jr., sells Hyomei on the guarantee of money back if it does not cure.—Adv. 5 Mar. 21.

Ada Guyer and William Hinton, Jr., of whom four are named as ministers and to which list is added as a minister John Erb and also Jesse L. Stayer as chosen to the ministry, and two are medical doctors. Rev. Stayer made various references in his address to the interest, zeal and loyalty of the pupils of the Pine Grove School during his school life not only of the rivalry of the pupils of this school but of that which existed between this school and other schools of the township, all of which created an extensive enthusiasm in the various schools by frequent contests, especially in the night spelling schools and literary societies which then played a valuable part in the school work of the boys and girls. He having been one of the pupils and teachers of the school who later attended higher institutions of learning and having had an extensive experience as a teacher and as a minister of the gospel and having lived all these years in touch with the affairs of this community was able to base his discourse upon the realities of life in the community which was much appreciated by his hearers.

Simon H. Sell, Esq., the second speaker, who was also a pupil of this school, delivered an interesting and entertaining address, and greeted many of his old school mates and neighbors with words of good cheer, and reviewed the history of the school, especially that period during which he was a pupil and related some interesting reminiscences of his school days. He exhibited reward of merit cards from the teachers under whom he was a pupil, all of which he prizes highly for the pleasant memories they recall. He urged the boys and girls to be interested in their work in and out of school so they would be ready to assume the responsibilities of life that are sure to come. He spoke of the various professions, trades and occupations which are open and ready to receive all who fit themselves for them, but pointed out the occupation of farming as the surest and most independent for happiness and success. He gave a detailed list of the teachers who taught in the school house just vacated as follows: Dr. Moses Detwiler, W. H. Clouse, Hon. Robert C. McNamara, Andrew B. Teeter, John Shoenfelt, Samuel L. Haffley, Joseph B. Keagy, Rev. Jacob C. Stayer, Daniel F. Bossler, Rev. John R. Stayer, J. K. Lewis, David L. Hoffman, John H. Sell, Prof. E. S. Kagarise, Homer Haffley, Newton K. Schell, J. C. Begley, Joseph Frederick, Albert Detwiler, Lewis Croft, Mrs. Barbara Halsinger Frederick, S. E. Zimmerman, Edward Carper, Durbin Hoffman, Miss Alice Baker, Miss Dollie Haffley, Lloyd Stayer, J. Clyde Stayer, Mrs. Malinda Imbler Replogle, Mary E. Stayer, Jesse L. Stayer and J. Roy Sell, who taught from one to four years in this school. He advised the parents that the best legacy they can give to their children is a well directed education and the best passport they can give them when they leave home is the Bible to which he referred as the safest and greatest book of wisdom and knowledge ever given to mankind.

Prof. L. H. Hinkle, County Superintendent, was the third and last speaker, who delivered an able address and took as his subject, The Profession of Teaching. He dwelt largely upon the responsibilities and possibilities pertaining to the parents and teachers and called their attention to the fact that the best results are obtained when their acts are made to harmonize with God's laws in nature and gave as an illustration that God gave to the world the single petal rose and with his genius when in harmony with God's laws in nature has been able to develop it into a much more beautiful multiple petal flower. He also called their attention to the fact that as music in the church service, which is the harmony of many minds, puts an inspiration into the minister in preaching his sermon, so it will also inspire the school work of the pupils and the work of the teachers. He called the attention of the patrons of the school to the fact that it is only when they, the children and the teachers, are in harmony in thought and in act that good results may be expected. Superintendent Hinkle urged the patrons of the school to show their appreciation of the new school house by taking a special interest in the work of the school, and cooperate with the teachers therein and made a most urgent plea for real work on the part of the teachers.

The occasion will be remembered as the largest and most interesting school gathering in this district, and while there were regrets on the part of those who received their common school education in the old school house that it should cease to exist, yet they all rejoiced that they had the privilege to join in the exercises celebrating the induction of the boys and girls from the old into a beautiful new edifice, which reminds us that progress must prevail and that time and tide wait for no one.

UNCLE SAM REPAYS A TOO TRUSTY P. M.

Left Door of Postoffice Unlocked as Faith in Neighbors, But the Crook Came Along.

Washington, February 26.—Congress has gone to the relief of Henry Weaver, a mountain postmaster in Alabama, and will pay back to him $94 that the Post-Office Department collected from him because he failed to lock his office, permitting a thief to enter and steal $91 in stamps and $3 in cash.

Senator White, Democrat, made a special appeal for the relief bill, saying:

"The old man was robbed of the stamps, which he had in a drawer, and the money, which he had in a cup. Winston County, where Mr. Weaver lives, was loyal to the Union in the Civil War, and it is the only Republican county in the State. The people of the county are as honest as they are loyal. They all belong to the hard shell Baptist Church."

"They excommunicated one man because he said they served ice in his liquor in Birmingham in August. They did not deal with him for drinking the liquor, but for lying about there being ice in the summer time."

"These people never wash their feet at home, but refrain in order that the privilege may be utilized as a religious performance on Sunday. They never lock their doors, but sleep with them and their mouths open. They never heard of a burglar or never use any locks, as they think it reflects on the honesty of their neighbors."

"Mr. Weaver had perfect faith in the loyalty of his people, but, strange to say, the transient burglar passed through that section of the country, took what little money he had and what little the Government had there."

A PSALM OF FARM LIFE

Tell me not in broken measures, Modern farming does not pay, For a farm produces chickens, And the hens—do they not lay? Eggs are high and going higher, And the price is soaring fast, Every time we go to market It is higher than the last.

Not a coop but it produces Every day an egg or two, So each farmer gains his millions Even though his eggs are few, Every egg is very precious, And the hens are held in awe, When a hen begins to cackle, Then the farmer goes "Haw-Haw."

In the broad and busy farmyard, Struts a rooster now and then, But the shrewd bewhiskered farmer Only notices the hen.

Trust no rooster, however showy, Pay attention to the biddies, And your wealth will never fail.

Lives of farmers all remind us, We may roll in wealth some day, If we hustle to the market With the eggs our pullets lay.

Falling Hair or Itching Scalp

Now that Parisian Sage—an inexpensive preparation that supplies every hair and scalp need—can be had from F. W. Jordan, Jr., it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly your hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage is all that is needed. Every trace of dandruff is removed with one application, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease.

Parisian Sage is certainly one of the most invigorating tonics, and will surely make your hair soft, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.—Adv. 5 Mar. 21.

More Gold Reported Found in Snyder

Selinsgrove, February 26.—The gold bearing zone is apparently spreading westward through Snyder County with the finding of quartz said to contain particles of the precious metal on the farm of Al Haines, at Raub's Mills, 25 miles west of here. One of Haines' sons while prospecting about the rocky portion of his father's farm Thursday unearthed a strata of rock similar to that discovered upon the Ner Feez farm, near Beavertown, where the gold strike was made.

American Magazine

In the March American Magazine appears an interesting photograph of Thomas A. Edison, recovered from the great fire which partially destroyed his factory in December. In the same issue Ida M. Tarbell continues her series of business articles entitled, "The Golden Rule in Business." Ring W. Lardner, famous as the author of "Letters of a Bushy," begins a new series of baseball stories. The first in the series is entitled "Braves is Right," and is an amusing report of the Boston National who won the world's series last fall.

Ellis Parker Butler begins a new series of boy stories, and other fiction is contributed by Elmer E. Ferris, Mary S. Watts and David Grayson. The regular departments—Interesting People, Interpreter's House and The Theater—are filled with good reading.

The prize-winning letters in a contest entitled, "How the War Affects Me," complete an issue of remarkable interest and freshness.

What Could Be Done with the $2,000,000 Which the Full Crew Laws Arbitrarily Take From the Railroads

Increased Railroad facilities, better service, greater safety and convenience, business expansion and the employment of a great number of men now idle would follow the repeal of the wasteful Pennsylvania and New Jersey Full Crew Laws.

Facts—Not Theories

$2,000,000 would buy 200 steel coaches.
It would pay for 80 locomotives.
It would purchase 67,000 tons of rails.
It would return 5 per cent. on $40,000,000.
It would block-signal 1000 miles of track.
It would eliminate 65 grade crossings.
It would pay for 2000 freight cars.
It would build 200 new stations at $10,000.
It would provide additional freight terminal facilities.
It would buy 2,500,000 railroad ties.
It would pay for 2,000,000 tons of coal.
The iron and steel industry would be stimulated, furnishing steel for new cars, rails, bridges, buildings, etc.
Miners and coke oven operatives would get increased work as industry expanded.
New construction would mean busy times for the Lehigh region cement plants and their workmen.
Thousands of architects, contractors, building trades workers, electrical concerns and electricians, skilled mechanics, carpenters, miners, and day laborers would so get work.

With these incontestable facts thus clearly set forth, the twenty-one railroads of Pennsylvania and New Jersey feel it their duty to place the fate of the Full Crew Laws in the hands of the people. They are convinced the people prefer that employment be given to thousands for whom there actually is work to knowing that $2,000,000 a year is being paid in mandatory wages for extra men for whom there exists no essential service to perform and whose presence, it has been conclusively shown, increases—rather than decreases—the hazards of railroad operation.

VALUABLE FACTS DISCLOSED

By a Tabulation of the Accidents Reported to the Department of Labor and Industry During 1914.

Thirty-eight thousand one hundred and twenty-six accidents were reported to the State Department of Labor and Industry during the year 1914. This represents a great loss, not only in time and money to both employers and employees, but also represents a widespread condition of suffering and unhappiness in the families of the workmen.

The one hopeful feature of this record is, that of the 38,000 accidents, 34,000 are reported of minor seriousness. Such a large number of accidents of this character would seem to indicate a greater amount of carelessness than of actual danger, and would imply a possibility that the number could be greatly reduced.

One of the best ways of preventing accidents is by educating the individual workman to a realization of his absolute personal responsibility. Each man should become trained to avoid foolhardy or careless actions when working with machinery; and also trained to use the precautionary methods that are being so generally developed by safety experts throughout our large industries. Employers should see to it that educational work in the mills is accompanied by the best mechanical means of protection, by supplying safeguards for all dangerous places, and where necessary for the moving parts of machinery.

The loss in wages due to the accidents reported was $1,048,503.96; and this is by no means the total amount. In this figure the loss to employers has not been included. Whenever an accident occurs, it causes a general disturbance among all the workmen, that requires some time to settle again to normal activity. The injured man must, in many instances, be replaced by one who is probably new to the establishment, and probably less experienced in that particular job. In this way, the organization of the establishment is disrupted, production is lessened, and costs increased. Accordingly, it may be justly assured that the $1,048,503.96 given above represents only a part of the total monetary loss.

According to the report, the total number of days lost by the workmen on account of these accidents is 426,824. This would be equal to the time of one man working steadily from three hundred years after Christ to the present, namely sixteen centuries. As no cases were reported to the Department which occasioned two days or less of inability to work, it can readily be seen that this number of days lost, as well as the amount of money, is far below the total loss in our industries. The average loss to each workman, according to the number reported, was 12 days.

If this were all of the story, that is, the economic effect of these 38,126 accidents, it would be sufficiently strong to show a great need of remedy. But when we consider the far-reaching injury to the social well-being of the people of our Commonwealth, the need of remedy grows imperative. It has been found that depending upon these injured workmen are 64,016 other persons. This means a total of over 100,000 persons affected by these accidents; from another point of view, one person in every seventy-seven living in our State, affected by the accidents reported to the Department. To the employer, the loss is of time and money; to the employee, the loss is time, money and physical suffering; to the dependents, the loss is time and money, and suffering perhaps equaling that of the employee.

The report under discussion, the most important figures of which have been quoted, shows the economic and social importance of industrial accidents. It is hoped that this presentation will tend to awaken public interest to the necessity of accident prevention work. It is believed that by the united efforts of all concerned, this great burden of suffering and loss can be tremendously reduced.

DANGERS OF SPRING

Little Talks on Health and Hygiene by Samuel G. Dixon, M. D.

When nature arouses from her winter lethargy and the first faint promise of spring softens the wind, man in common with all animal life harkens to the foretelling.

The desire for change and relief from the winter routine is strong in us all and while this is the time when caution should be exercised our impulses seem to lead us to cast it aside. The high death rate from pneumonia and tuberculosis which is the inevitable accompaniment of the early spring months is an irrefutable evidence that this change from winter habits requires the exercise of caution to prevent evil results.

The city dweller in particular is apt to over-eat and underexercise during the winter season. As a result when spring approaches his physical strength is below par, he becomes easily fatigued and therefore susceptible to the attacks of disease germs.

Old people who suffer from the cold during the winter and who do not appreciate that ventilation need not mean exposure, are apt to suffer from the sudden changes of temperature at this season of the year. It is particularly due to these winter habits of poor ventilation and in sufficient exercise that when spring arrives we feel debilitated.

The sensible liver who sleeps the year round in the fresh air, eats in moderation and exercises rationally is far less subject to spring fever and spring ailments than the more self-indulgent individual.

During March when fluctuations of the temperature are frequent, care should be taken to maintain an even bodily temperature by proper protection in the way of clothing. Better some slight discomfort at noon than to be chilled on the way home from work at night. Moderation in diet is also advisable. This with a reasonable amount of exercise and well ventilated sleeping rooms will aid in resisting the dangers accompanying the approach of spring.

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters is recommended for strengthening stomach, bowels and liver and purifying the blood.—Adv.

"By George, I never say anything like the effects of that new treatment, Tonaline Tablets, for building up of weight and lost nerve force. It acted more like a miracle than a medicine," said a well-known gentleman yesterday in speaking of the revolution that had taken place in his condition. "I began to think that there was nothing on earth that could make me fat. I tried tonics, digestives, heavy eating, diets, milk, beer and almost everything else you could think of, but without result."

Any man or woman who is thin can recover normal weight by the best new treatment, Tonaline Tablets. "I have been thin for years and began to think it was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable processes brought about by use of Tonaline Tabs, so I decided to try them myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now, I think it is somebody else. I have put on just forty pounds during the last forty days and never felt stronger or more 'nervy' in my life."

Tonaline Tabs are a powerful inducer to nutrition, increases cell-growth, food, increases the number of blood-corpuscles and as a necessary result builds up muscles, and solid healthy flesh, and rounds out the figure.

For women who can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a beauty maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengthener. Tonaline Tabs cost $1 for a 50-days' treatment, at druggists, or mailed by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass. 12Feb4t Advertisement.

Helixville

March 1—Quite a storm prevailed in our vicinity last week.

The people of this place were very much shocked last Friday when they learned of the death of Miss Anna Emerick of Point.

Last Saturday evening a number of our young folks gathered together at Henry L. Miller's and had a pleasant time. Those present were: Misses Jessie Kinzey, Susan Kinzey, Cora Rowser, Levera Turner, Olive DiBert, Mary Manges, Goldie Manges and Rosella Wertz; Henry Kinzey, Edward Kinzey, Walter Morse, Homer Rowser, Kenneth Turner, Raymond Turner, Elmer Miller, Wylie Miller, Guy Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Hattie Yager and two children. They report a very enjoyable time.

Harry Hill and son William are spending some time with home folks.

Edward Hinson of Johnstown spent last week with his parents.

Miss Goldie Manges of Somerset attended the wedding last week of her uncle, Warren Miller, and Miss Margaret C. Hiner of New Paris.

Peter A. Miller is on the sick list.

An Ounce of Preventative is Worth a Ton of Cure
(By S. W. English, Fire Prevention Expert.)

It is said that the sword of Damocles was suspended above the head of that tyrant with but a single thread.

Every man, woman and child ought to think well of the lesson taught by this example.

The fire demon is the sword of destruction that ever hangs above the heads of the people. If you knew that by the mere snipping of a thread all that you had saved would be wiped out, wouldn't you ever be on the alert to see that the thread was not snipped?

More property is destroyed by fire than by all other destroying elements combined.

Storms come with the seasons, and warning of their coming is generally given. Winds reach a destructive velocity at but rare intervals and floods follow expected courses.

But fires are catholic in their field. They visit the just and the unjust and everywhere there is food for the fire demon he finds his victims.

Be on the watch tower of your own home all the time. He fattens on your own folly. You can prevent his paying you a visit if you but will.

Good Roads Notes

(By Homer D. Wade)

No other citizen realizes the value of good roads as does the farmer.

A community can safely be judged by the kind of highways it maintains.

The greatest chasm between the producer and the consumer is the mud hole.

Production must cease when the transportation costs eat up the profits.

There is something radically wrong with the farmer who is opposed to good roads.

Without good roads, there can be no development that will be permanent and enduring.

Bad roads keep children away from school and impair the efficiency of church work in a community.

The elementary principles involved in improved highways are social and domestic happiness and business economics.

INQUIRER CHANGES HANDS

On last Saturday the two-thirds interest in the Bedford Inquirer was sold by E. H. Blackburn to J. Schell Ridenour of Bedford, son of J. W. Ridenour, formerly a well known jeweler of Bedford.

Mr. Ridenour, the new proprietor, will assume charge of the plant on next Monday. He is a live wire in the newspaper business and will make a good editor. He has served on several newspaper staffs in Philadelphia, Boston, and Chicago, and has made good in all these places. We predict for him abundant success in his new undertaking and look forward with pleasure to our association with him and hope to work, side by side, in the most peaceful relations.

Mr. Ridenour is a graduate of Bethel Military Academy in Virginia, Cascadia Preparatory School of Ithaca, N. Y., and Cornell University of the same place. He has had a wide experience with men and has seen some of the knocks of the world along with the rest of us. He can appreciate a comfortable situation and can sympathize with the ones who are struggling and toiling hard to make a living. He knows the conditions in our large centres of population better than any other person in Bedford County. We extend to Schell the heartiest of congratulations and good wishes.

Mr. Blackburn will at present attend to his legislative duties, having nothing else at hand to which to turn his attention.

Congress adjourned yesterday. The Shipping Bill died in committee through the opposition of the Republicans. It was the intention of President Wilson to have government vessels carry on our foreign commerce until the close of the war when private shippers would assume responsibility again, and thus save our foreign trade from destruction, but the Republicans were afraid that it would tend toward government ownership and would give a great blow to the big corporations, which they have so long fostered and promulgated. The Republicans still seem to be the mother of trusts and against the common people.

To Our Subscribers

We send out two notices to every subscriber whose subscription is back. One is sent out at the beginning of the month to inform him that his subscription will expire at the end of the month. The other notice is sent out at the close of the month to notify him that his subscription has expired, provided he has not paid within the month. We do this every month. If your label reads 1914 it is a sign that you are a little behind.

House Warming

Thursday night the many friends of Mrs. George Heit, who has been confined to the house all winter with rheumatism, gave her a house warming. Mrs. Heit received many very beautiful and useful presents. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. George Heit and family, Mrs. Charles McMullin, Mrs. Jacob Rohm, Mrs. A. D. Bowers, Miss Lou Pennell, Mrs. Philip Leonard, Mrs. S. I. McVicker, Mrs. Lee Foreman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Diehl, Mrs. Henry Waketooms, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mock and family, Mrs. Charles Leonard and son, Mrs. Daniel Mock, Mrs. Alonzo Minnich, Mrs. Samuel Croyle and son, Mrs. Forest Crissman, Mrs. William Hershberger, Mrs. George Carbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Easter and son, Mrs. George Diehl, Mrs. Charles Walters, Miss Virginia Little, Mrs. Walter Weverling, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mock and son, Miss Susie Fletcher, Miss Dorothy Mock, Mrs. Harry McMullin, Mrs. Murray Leader, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davidson and sons and Miss Gertrude Minnich.

Keep March 19 in Mind

On Friday evening, March 19, in Assembly Hall the Loyal Temperance Legion will give an entertainment which promises to be the most interesting yet presented by this enthusiastic organization. Announcement in full will appear in next Friday's Gazette. Keep the date in mind, March 19.

PRISTON STEWART

Well-Known Bedford Colored Man Passes Away.

Early Wednesday morning, at his home on East John Street, Preston Stewart, a well-known colored man, answered the summons of death. Preston was born at Bathsburg, S. C., and was aged about seventy years. During the Civil War he was an attendant to Major Watson Anderson of the 20th Pa. Cav. In January, 1865, Major Anderson died and Preston accompanied the body to Bedford, where he had resided ever since. For many years he worked for the Watsons and Andersons, later being employed by the late Dr. Harry. In 1882 he accepted a position as porter at the Bedford House, where he remained up until that famous hostelry closed its doors to the public in 1910, when he accepted a similar position at the Grand Central Hotel. He was well known by the traveling public.

He is survived by his wife, who was Mary Robinson, and four children: Mrs. Reuben Gates and Mrs. William Washington of Altoona, Emma and Holland Stewart, at home. The funeral service will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment will be made in Mt. Ross Cemetery, west of Bedford.

Mrs. Sophia Ake

The body of Mrs. Ake, who died at Downingtown Thursday morning of last week, was brought to her home here Friday afternoon. She was formerly Miss Sophia Steele and was married to Samuel Ake, Esq., who died about a year ago. She was aged 82 years. Surviving are two children, Miss Fannie, who was with her mother, and Frank Ake of this place. Three brothers and one sister are also living: Edward Steele of Washington, D. C.; Thomas and John of Yellow Creek, and Mrs. Eliza Hershberger of Snake Spring Valley. The funeral service was conducted in St. James' Episcopal Church, of which she was a devout member, Sunday afternoon, by the rector, Rev. Albert Anne. Interment was made in the Bedford Cemetery.

By Mrs. Ake's death, Bedford has lost one of its oldest and most estimable residents.

Mrs. Howard Claar

At the Nason Hospital, Roaring Spring, Hattie, wife of Howard Claar, died Thursday of last week of tubercular spinal meningitis. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Corle and was born near Queen November 28, 1836, being 18 years, two months and 27 days old at the time of her death. She is survived by her parents, husband and one daughter, Josie, and the following brothers and sisters: Joseph of Queen, Adolphus of Windber, Fred and Austin of near Imber, Mrs. Rachel Ickes of Osterburg and Mrs. Mary O'Connell of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services were conducted at the Upper Claar Church by Rev. J. A. Garver. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining.

William Y. Poorman

William Y. Poorman died at Schellsburg on Friday, February 26, of heart failure, aged 50 years, 10 months and seven days. He was born, lived and died on the same lot. At the dinner table he complained of feeling ill, and soon afterwards was found dead upon the floor of his shop. On his 80th birthday the surviving members of his family gathered about him and ate dinner in the room in which he was born.

Nearly all his life he had been engaged in the undertaking business and was still faithfully pursuing his chosen occupation when the Lord called him home. In politics he was an ardent follower of the Democratic principles. He was a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Schellsburg, for nearly twenty-five years and nearly all his life a scholar and teacher in the Sunday School of the same church.

The services were conducted in the church, which was filled to overflowing with loved ones, friends and neighbors, to pay their last respects to the oldest inhabitant of Schellsburg. The services were conducted by Rev. Charles L. Quinn, assisted by Rev. William Rose, pastor of Schellsburg M. E. Church.

Mr. Poorman is survived by four sons: Jacob of Schellsburg, W. E. of Highspire, Samuel S., postmaster of Schellsburg, a H. of Elizabethtown; a daughter, Miss Elsie Poorman, of Schellsburg, and six grandchildren. His wife and six of his children had already crossed the mystic river.

Schellsburg, by the death of Mr. Poorman, lost a soldier of the cross and therefore a personality that means so much for civic righteousness in a community.

Mrs. Catherine Ritchey

Mrs. Catherine Ritchey died at the home of her son, J. P. Ritchey, in Liberty Township, on Saturday, February 20, aged 86 years. She was a daughter of Samuel and Catherine Brumbaugh, and was born in Liberty Township. Her husband, Abram Ritchey, preceded her to the grave 25 years ago. Two sons survive: Samuel B. of Stonerstown and J. P., with whom she lived. One sister, Mrs. Maria Snyder, lives in Nebraska.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. S. Stayer and Fred Hoover on Sunday, February 21. Interment was made in the Brumbaugh Cemetery.

A Dreadful Calamity

Miss Polly Perkins called at the Piez-U Shop one day last week and had a FIT. Miss Perkins, however, recovered without the aid of a physician and says the Piez-U Shop is the place to buy corsets. No charge for fitting.—Adv.

Annie Emerick

Miss Annie Emerick died at the Nason Hospital, Roaring Spring, on Friday, February 26, aged 28 years, seven months and 26 days. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Emerick of Napier Township. She was very popular with both old and young. Everyone had a kind word for her. The large crowd which attended the funeral services, from far and near, showed the respect in which she was held.

Rev. Brickley officiated at the funeral services held on Monday. Interment was made at New Paris. The following young ladies acted as pallbearers: Mary Studebaker, Myrtle Blackburn, Myrtle Cable, Margaret Rock, Buelah and Sarah Blackburn, superintended by David Shull, Point, Pa. Hooker.

Joseph Smith

Saturday evening, February 20, the body of Joseph Smith was found near the depot at Six Mile Run, in an unconscious condition. Medical aid was rendered at once, but death ensued in a short time at his home in Hopewell. Mr. Smith was a miner and a resident of Six Mile Run. He was aged 58 years, nine months and 16 days. His wife and six children survive, also two brothers, T. E. of Langdonale and P. L. of Saxton, and three sisters: Mrs. Mary Price of Langdonale, Mrs. Laveria Brallier of Hopewell and Mrs. Alice Parks of Canton, O. Interment was made at Hopewell on Wednesday of last week.

Catherine Stiffer

Catherine Elizabeth Stiffer, aged 65 years, died Tuesday morning, March 2, of dropsy, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Isett, on North Richard Street. She was born and reared at "The Willows," in a house where her mother was born and bred and died, and where her grandparents, Henry and Elizabeth Lysinger, lived for many years. In this old vine-clad homestead she spent many happy days. Several years ago she sold the old home; they "moved to town"; it's the old, old story: her money was invested and lost. But she did not whine, or pine, or cry. She went to work and did the best she could to help earn a living. She was patient, helpful and industrious, but Fate seemed to be against her. "Death is delightful."

At 10 o'clock, the waking from a "wear" night of fevers unto truth and light.

The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the home of her daughter, conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. W. Faus, of the Methodist Church. The body was buried in the Bedford Cemetery.

Hon. W. U. Hensel Dead

Mon W. U. Hensel of Lancaster died in the South this week where he had gone with "Don" Cameron for his health. Mr. Hensel was an able lawyer of Lancaster, a graduate and trustee of Franklin and Marshall College and Attorney General of the State during Robert E. Pattison's last term as Governor. His counsel was always sought and he was prime advocate of many political and social reforms. He was a great stump speaker.

New P. O. S. of A. Camp Institute, Washington Camp No. 499, P. O. S. of A. was instituted at Salemsville on March 1 by Kie E. Brown, District President, assisted by C. L. Nonesmaker, State Vice President, and a degree team of sixteen members from Altoona.

The following officers were elected: Past President, F. N. Walter; President, H. K. Diamond; Vice President, D. C. Detwiler; Master of Forms, Calvia Imber; Recording Secretary, C. C. Wolfe; Financial Secretary, John Boyd; Treasurer, W. A. King; Conductor, C. E. Crowden; Inspector, Park Berkeimer; Guard, George W. Hess; Chaplain, C. L. King; Right Sentinel, R. F. Kegarsie; Left Sentinel, Lloyd King.

The number of members on the charter warrant 34 and the number initiated 32. Camps Nos. 31, 54, 60, 80 and 423, and Alexander Commandry No. 46 were represented in the parade which was held. The Salemsville Band furnished music. After the initiation a fine lunch was served.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. James E. Jones of Switchback, W. Va., formerly Miss Edith Jenkin of Pittsburgh, was the guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Edward M. Bigelow, at her residence in Pittsburgh. During the luncheon announcement was made of the engagement of the hostess' niece, Miss Helen A. Peabody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Peabody, to Humphrey D. Smith of Elkhorn, W. Va., son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert S. Smith of Philadelphia, formerly of Bedford.

SAVAGE FIRE BRICK COMPANY

Of Hyndman Changes to a $1,000,000 Concern.

The Savage Fire Brick Company which for years operated at Hyndman under the management and organization of the late J. J. Hoblitzel, has been assumed by a new corporation capitalized at $1,000,000.

The offices of the company have been in Meyersdale, Pa., and will still be located there for the immediate future though Mr. McClune, its present manager, who is going to continue its head, will move to Johnstown.

The new name for the company will be The Savage Clay Products Company, incorporated under the laws of Delaware, and will merge the Savage Fire Brick Company at Hyndman, Williams and Keystone on E. & O. R. R., and Freeman Fire Brick Company of New Cumberland, W. Va. There seems to be an immense capital behind the merger and most, if not all, of the stockholders are persons of skill and experience in the management of concerns of this nature. The combine was effected on Monday, March 1. The operation of the plant will begin in the near future and it will again put the town of Hyndman on the map as a business place of some quality.

Gives Views on Full Crew Law

Editor Gazette:—Having been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for almost a third of a century, and having tried to keep in touch with its mighty and rapid advance, I trust that I may not be considered out of place by your great army of readers in expressing my sentiments in regard to the Full Crew Law.

A fraction over one year ago, a train, manned by a full crew—consisting of engineer, conductor, fireman, flagman and two brakemen, brought three cars of ballast to unload in the track between Bedford and Wolfburg. When the train stopped, the fireman and the two brakemen took their dinner pails and went into the fields adjacent to the railroad and gathered "greens" while the two section men and the writer toiled like galley slaves to get the ballast unloaded as quickly as possible. This is a sample of the Full Crew Law.

The repeal of this law is an economic necessity. The enactment of this law like many another law was very unwise legislation. The railroads of Pennsylvania and New Jersey have already spent hundreds of thousands—aye millions of dollars for which they have received no return. It is one of the chief factors that have so alarmingly increased the cost of operating the railroads.

Louis D. Brandies, the arch enemy of railroads, and who hates the railroads as "Billy" Sunday hates the saloon, said a few days ago that the Full Crew Law ought to be repealed at once.

Brandies has never persecuted the Jews as the railroads of the United States have been persecuted the last six years. Commissions order improved stations and the installation of signals. They tell the railroad managers where they must, and when they shall not stop paste the number of hours men shall work. States tell the railroad people how often they must pay their men, and the most amazing and damnable feature of this whole process is that actual experience in the successful conduct of railroad affairs—actually disqualifies a man from appointment to a railroad commission.

W. B. Pierson, Foreman No. 3, Wolfburg, March 2, 1915.

Musical and Institute

A musical will be held in the school auditorium at Mann's Choice Saturday evening, March 6, and an institute at the same place the following Saturday evening. Good programs for the occasions are being prepared.

Know Paint

There's a paint-education in this advertisement.

Buy by the job, not gallon. Buy by the paint put-on; that's the job. The price of paint is so much a gallon; that can't be helped, but amounts to nothing.

The price of painting is so much a day; that can't be helped, but amounts to nothing.

Put them together. How can you do it? You've got to or lose perhaps half of your money.

Devote 10 gallons enough for the average job; an average paint, 15. Now reckon your costs. Count labor a day for a gallon. Devote 10 days; the other 15.

Devote about $50; the average paint about $70 or $80; the dearer the labor the bigger the difference, always that way.

But that's for the job. How long is it going to last? One twice as long as the other.

Miss Sannie Beggle returned to her home near Bedford on Sunday, after spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Salvia Lecone.

George Snively was a caller at Roaring Spring on Monday.

Elvin Berkeimer of New Enterprise was a business visitor to Altoona on Thursday. He took charge of the body of Ruth Amick, aged two years, daughter of Frank Amick of this place, her mother being deceased. She was admitted to the Altoona Hospital at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening and underwent an operation for lymphatic infection. The body was taken to the home of her uncle, Wilson Amick, of near New Enterprise, where she had been making her home. Funeral services were held Sunday morning at New Enterprise. Interment was made in Dry Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. W. A. Schooley

At 12 o'clock Thursday evening Mrs. Abby Schooley, wife of W. A. Schooley, died at her home at this place. She had been bedfast for the past several weeks and was operated upon at the Nason Hospital, Roaring Spring, several months ago for cancer. She was a daughter of Amos and Mary Wells Parker, both deceased, and was born at Lynn, Mass., July 6, 1849, being aged at the time of her death 65 years, seven months and 19 days. She came to Bedford County with her parents at the age of 12 years.

Mrs. Schooley was united in marriage to W. A. Schooley by Rev. A. W. Decker on February 6, 1869. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Ora Coy of this place, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Davis of New Paris.

Mrs. Schooley has been a resident of Woodbury for the past several years moving here from Pleasantville. She was a faithful member of the M. E. Church for many years, and in addition to the surviving relatives she leaves a large circle of friends who feel their loss deeply.

The funeral service was held at her late home in Woodbury Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. M. Shimer. Interment was made in Dry Hill Cemetery.

Mary M. Clouse

Mary Meredith, daughter of Roy and Nannie May Clouse, died at her home at this place on Monday, March 1. She was born January 8, 1915, being aged at the time of death one month and 23 days.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. G. M. Shimer.

New Paris

Samuel Shawley has moved from the farm of W. A. Stultz to New Paris where Mrs. Catharine Gephart lived. Mrs. Gephart moved to the home of her nephew, William Gephart. The farm of Mr. Stultz will be tilled by Walter Custer.

Anna M. Emerick

The funeral services of Miss Anna Mary Emerick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Emerick of Point, who died on February 26 at the age of 28 years, seven months and 29 days, which were conducted in the United Evangelical Church at Point by her pastor, Rev. D. E. Brickley, were concluded in the Evangelical Cemetery at New Paris Monday noon where interment of the body was made in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends.

Miller-Hiner

On Wednesday, February 24, Miss Margaret Hiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hiner of New Paris and Warren Miller of Windber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Miller, were united in matrimony by Rev. J. Winwood, pastor of the United Brethren Church at New Paris, in the presence of the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hiner, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hiner and daughter Leora, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hiner and daughter Viola, Mr. and Mrs. John Hiner, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Blackburn and daughter Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McCreary and son Merle, Mrs. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hinton and daughters, Ruth and Elita, Rev. and Mrs. Winwood and daughters, Sarah and Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smouse and son James, Mrs. Charles McCreary, son Jay and daughter Virginia, Mrs. Mary Suter, Mrs. Findlay Oldham and daughters, Emma and Daisy, Mrs. Isaac Gordon, Mrs. James Miller, the Misses Mary Hiner, Georgia Crissman, Margaret Suter, Caroline Wehring, Nelle Cuppett, Mary Manges, Goldie Manges, Edna Kinzey, Ruth Blackburn, Rosella Wertz, Annie Oldham, Roy Miller, Emmett Mitchell, Thomas Sleek, Harold Cuppett and Blair Hinton. At the home of the bride's parents, where the ceremony was performed, a bounteous dinner was served.

We are glad to learn of the interest manifested in the Sunday Schools of Bedford. It is hoped that the schools throughout the county will catch the inspiration to such an extent that all will increase their membership and may be termed "evergreen" schools. We very much appreciate the column given in the Gazette each week, devoted to an explanation of the lesson. Also the notes given on "temperance." Caj.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Odd Fellows' Banquet

Friday evening, February 26, will be remembered by Schellsburg Lodge No. 870, I. O. O. F., as a "red letter day," the occasion being a celebration in honor of the members who have passed the "fortieth milestone" of Odd Fellowship. The honored ones were: G. B. Steek, W. W. Van Ormer, Asa Diehl, C. J. Potts, J. E. Luken, S. B. Whetstone, E. E. Dull, W. H. Beaver, Fred Blumberger and S. S. Potts. The evening was the anniversary of the initiation of Brother Beaver and Brother Blumberger.

At 8 o'clock the members and their guests assembled in the lodge room where the following program was rendered: Singing of the Opening Ode; Devotional Exercises by Rev. Wilfong; Address by J. Reed Irvine, D. D. G. M.; Quartet by Messrs. Culp and Fisher, Miss Culp and Mrs. Culp; "The Central Link," H. Hinkle, County Superintendent; short addresses by W. H. Beaver and Rev. Wilfong; Closing Ode.

At the close of the program all repaired to the Banquet Hall where awaited a sumptuous dinner which had been prepared by Mrs. J. R. Kinzey. About 60 members and their guests surrounded the festal board and tried to do justice to good things. It was to be regretted that owing to the inclemency of the weather and the illness of a number of the guests, quite a number were not permitted to be present and enjoy the evening.

At a late hour the assembled guests returned to their homes thoroughly pleased with the success of the evening. All join in wishing the veteran brethren many more years yet to be added to their already splendid record of membership in Odd Fellowship.

Defiance

March 2—The High School Mid-dlers gave a public entertainment in the Defiance school building last Friday night. There was a good turnout and all seemed delighted with the exercises. These public meetings in which our children do the entertaining are a good thing as many parents never get to see the inside of their school house except when the children give an entertainment.

Carl D. Snyder, one of our wide-awake High School Seniors, paid his home folks at Clearville a visit over Sunday. His boarding mistress accuses Carl of having had something extraordinarily good of which he ate abundantly as his appetite does not seem normal since his return.

Miss Mary Mobus was at Huntingdon on Saturday until Monday of this week calling on friends and acquaintances.

J. H. Little, Jr., and daughter Mary were in Bedford between trains on Sunday visiting Mr. Little's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Little.

Miss Edna Lynch of Everett spent part of this week with relatives at Defiance.

Mrs. J. L. Tenley and little daughter Geraldine were at Saxton on Monday of this week.

J. H. Little, Jr., received and stored away another carload of powder this week. Mr. Little does the biggest powder business of any merchant on Six Mile Run.

John Stayer and family are visiting at Everett several days this week. Prof. Henry Harley of Robertsdale, in company with Miss Dorothy J. Miller of Six Mile Run, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brumbaugh last Sunday morning.

We are glad to be able to report that Mrs. Jacob Hoover, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Blair Memorial Hospital, Huntingdon, was brought home last week and is doing nicely.

Mrs. H. H. Brumbaugh was at Huntingdon on business between trains last Saturday.

The little town of Defiance has not for a long time received a greater shock than was received Monday morning of this week when the news went out that our little friend, Lejay Satterfield, is dead. He was aged about 17 years and a son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Satterfield. More concerning this death will be written for the columns of this paper next week.

Some time ago mention was made by your correspondent of the manner in which some of our would-be citizens celebrated Christmas but, if we have been correctly informed, the glorious (?) old time some of our young men, both single and married, had last Sunday night would make interesting entertainment for a moving picture show. It makes our hearts ache to see these bright, intelligent, promising young men, blessed with splendid strong bodies, make such fools of themselves. We can not blame it all on the young men either. I fear that many of the parents have in the past encouraged their boys by their attitude toward the temperance question. It is indeed a pitiful sight to see men (sometimes fathers) on a Saturday evening striding along the road waiting for the drayman to bring their jug or their case of beer which will command their attention on the Lord's day instead of them taking their wives and children to the church to hear the Word of God read and taught. Shame! Shame! Shame!

March 3—William Lambert and Humphrey Smith have erected a large chicken house on their farm.

Quite a lot of our folks attended the funeral of Miss Anna Emerick at Point on Monday.

H. L. Hull and William Zeigler attended the banquet given by the I. O. O. F. of Schellsburg Friday night. David H. Deaner has sold his property and planning mill and all machinery connected with it to Russell Wonders of near New Paris. Mr. Wonders will take possession of the property April 1st.

The writer has just been informed of a case of kidnapping which happened in Bedford last Saturday. A certain man from our neighboring town got three other fellows in his auto and started. Of course, the boys thought they were going home but the chauffeur headed westward and took his prisoners into Westmoreland County. After some little argument and the faithful promise of the boys to be good, the driver turned homeward again. A few little mishaps and a little tire trouble delayed their reaching home until Sunday noon.

Pine Grove

March 2—The farmers are getting ready to plow as soon as the first nice day comes.

Several of our young men attended the Odd Fellows' banquet at Osterburg Saturday night. All report a good time.

John Wolfe was sawing wood for Levi Harbaugh with his gasoline outfit the first of the week.

Oliver Croyle of Bedford was a pleasant caller at this place on Sunday.

John Berkheimer has been housed up the past several days with rheumatism and grip.

Miss Alda Bowser and Mr. Kimmel of Johnstown spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bowser.

Miss Mae Clair was a business visitor at the county capital on Saturday.

Roy Griffith attended the horse sale in Bedford on Saturday.

Steckman

March 2—B. F. Koontz and wife are visiting relatives and friends in Morrison's Cove.

Some of the farmers have opened their sugar camps but have not made much syrup and sugar.

Those who spent Sunday at D. C. Blankley's were Marshall Beck, wife and son and John Conner and family. Orb Diehl and Grover Beck spent Saturday and Sunday at W. T. Grove's in Snake Spring Valley.

A linen shower was given in honor of Miss Rosa Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Smith of Indian Springs, Friday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Smith, Mrs. John Morris, Misses Ruth Weicht, Mildred Dunn, Bertha Weimer, Rosa, Edna and Olive Smith; Anna Pennell, Erma Garlick, Sara Robison, Velma Conner and Grace Morris; William Weicht, Roy Conner, Earl and George Morris, John Bulger, Earl Sparks, Earl Blankley, Edgar Beck, Roy Means, Ellis Koontz, Walter Robison, Cromel, Donald and Chester Smith and Chester Robison.

Quite a number of people from our vicinity attended the sale recently at the George McDaniel Homestead.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SPILLERS, Acting Director of Sunday School Course, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 7

SAUL ANOINTED KING.

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 9:17-10:1. GOLDEN TEXT—Fear God, honor the king.—1 Peter 2:17.

Because of the acts of Samuel the people petitioned for a king (ch. 8:5). They are told plainly what to expect if a king is set in authority (ch. 8:19). God, however, granted their petition and spoke "in the ear" of Samuel, saying, "I will send thee a man," telling him of the work which this man is to undertake (ch. 9:15, 16).

1. "Samuel Saw Saul" vv. 17-21. Saul was a man to gaze at and to admire (ch. 9:2). His fruitless search for his father's asses leads him to the city wherein Samuel was residing. There he is advised to consult the "man of God" about his difficulty—a good suggestion for us all. This experience (ch. 9:6-14) exhibits Samuel in a new light. The word "seer" indicates "one who sees," one who sees the things God makes manifest in dreams (Num. 24:4-16). While the word is similar to the modern term "clairvoyant" yet the latter are not the successors of these Old Testament "seers" or "prophets." They are rather the successors of the false prophets (Jer. 17:14), and of those who dealt with familiar spirits (1 Chron. 10:13-14; Isa. 8:19-20; 2 Kings 21:1, 2, 6). Saul evidently did not know Samuel (vv. 16-18).

Samuel took Saul with him for the night to take his mind off his father's asses and to prepare him to receive the word from God. Christians take far too little time to withdraw themselves and take their restless minds off the things of time and sense to be still and hear the word of God. What were a few asses to Saul, to him "for whom all that is desirable in Israel" (v. 20 R. V.)? Christians who are heirs to the heavenly kingdom ought not to set their affections on the poor possessions of earth (Col. 3:1, 2; 2 Cor. 4:18). In response to Samuel's information, Saul disclaims any greatness; indeed, he is not from one of the least of the families of one of the smallest of the tribes (v. 21). Such humility gave great promise for Saul's future usefulness. Such was the mental and spiritual attitude of the man whom God chose to be king (ch. 15:17).

It was later, when pride and power had puffed him up, that the kingdom was taken away from him (ch. 15:23; 16:1; Luke 14:11; Heb. 13:1).

II. "Samuel Took Saul" vv. 22-24. Saul was then led into the guest chamber and placed in the chief seat. Read our Lord's parable found in Luke 14:7-11. Samuel then bade the cook bring the thigh, which was a choice piece of meat especially reserved for those thus honored (Ezek. 24:4). Such a portion belonged to the priest (Lev. 7:32). That which did not belong upon the altar Saul was to eat (v. 24). Samuel and Saul may have had the preference and eaten before the other guests (v. 13), and Saul is made acquainted with the special honor conferred upon him. Following the feast, they return to Samuel's home, where Saul is conducted to a couch upon the flat housetop (Acts 10:9). Here Samuel had private converse with Saul (v. 25 R. V.). What that converse may have been we know not, but we are reminded of one such nocturnal conversation which gave to the world God's most precious summary of his love (John 3:1-16).

Samuel poured oil upon Saul's head. Prophets, priests, kings and cleansed lepers were so anointed, a type of the anointing by the holy spirit (1 Kings 19:15, 16; Lev. 8:12, 14-16; Isa. 61:1; 1 John 2:20 R. V.). This act was also a symbol of entire consecration to God, and pointed forward to the coming king (Messiah, Anointed One) whom God himself would anoint (Ps. 45:7).

Saul was anointed to be "a prince" and to save God's people (ch. 9:16; Acts 5:31). His ear is always open to the cry of his people. Even though they had sinned, and their sorrow was because of their own disobedience, yet God regarded their affliction (Ps. 106:43, 44). Only God's anointed ones can save (Isa. 61:1-3).

Saul's selected task was to save Israel out of the hands of the Philistines (See Luke 1:69-71). God's eye sees the oppression of mankind and his ear is always open to the cry of the poor and needy; of innocent children suffering because of the sins of parents; of men defrauded of justice. But the delivering remedy will not be brought by any earthly king. Mankind is today crying for a king (sometimes it is termed "democracy") and will not have God to rule over them. Heedless of his warnings, blessed by his bounty, they struggle and scheme to heal their own hurt.

Saul's humility rapidly gave place to pride and pride to ambition, ambition to oppression, and finally to an untimely end, due to disobedience. When our king comes the skillfully constructed scheme of man's government, wherein graft and pride, ambition and lust, find such a prominent place will be set aside for a kingdom wherein justice and love, equity and service, will be meted out to every man; one wherein ideals will become realities.

Temperance

(Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

DESIRE OF WHISKY VICTIM.

Some years ago in a village of western New York on election morning the recognized village paper went to the polls. He asked for a temperance ballot, and a liquor seller got him one supposing a joke was at hand. Folding it as best he could with trembling hands, the bear-eyed, bloated-faced ragged, unkempt man went to the ballot box and registered his wish. Then they began to scoff and sneer at the drunkard who had cast a temperance vote. "A pretty temperance voter you are," said one. "Why, if there was a bottle of whisky yonder there at the top of that liberty pole, and if you could have the whisky by climbing the pole at the risk of your life, you know you'd climb." And then the drunkard straightened himself up as best he might and answered them. "Know it!" he said, with trembling painful emphasis: "Know it! Oh, yes I know it. And I know another thing, gentlemen—if the whisky wasn't there I wouldn't climb."

TRIED AND CONVICTED.

It is one of the most cheering signs of the times that the cause of temperance is steadily gaining champions in the United States congress. This from Representative Clyde Kelly of Pennsylvania: "The American saloon has already been tried and convicted in one-half the territory of the United States, and in the remaining territory where it still waves the Stars and Stripes it will soon be seeing the stars and wearing the stripes. Facing the facts and knowing the meaning of the struggle, the liquor interests are forming a battle line of gigantic strength. We accept its mighty challenge, for we know that with this giant wrong overthrown many others which have marred and scarred humanity for generations will go crashing down in one great heap of wreck and rubbish. And crediting that, we do not ask how many the enemies are, we only ask where the enemies are."

NO FINANCIAL PANIC.

The American Machinist recently published a chart showing the number of workers (wage-earners, proprietors and executives) engaged in twelve of the manufacturing industries of this country. The following are the figures:

Foundry and machine shop products	1,115,417
Lumber and timber products	734,993
Printing and publishing	358,461
Cotton goods	357,771
Tobacco products	271,437
Iron and steel	260,765
Boots and shoes	215,923
Meat products	197,021
Women's clothing	197,021
Men's clothing	197,021
Distilled liquors	66,721
	$3,245

If all the breweries and distilleries were to close their plants tomorrow there would be no panic in the business world, only a little readjustment.

HER LITTLE LECTURE.

A young man, in company with several other gentlemen, called upon a young lady. Her father was present to assist in entertaining the guests, and offered wine, but the young lady asked, "Did you call upon me or upon papa?"

Gallantry, if nothing else, compelled them to answer, "We called on you." "Then you will please not drink wine," she said. "I have lemonade for my visitors." The wine glasses were set down, with their contents untasted. After leaving the house one of the party exclaimed, "That was the most effectual temperance lecture I ever heard."

POLICEMEN AGAINST SALOONS.

"How many of you would like to see all the saloons closed?" asked Catch-My-Pal Patterson of 200 policemen who had gathered at the mounted police headquarters in Chicago to hear him speak. All but about twenty-five men stood up.

Capt. Charles Healey, who introduced Mr. Patterson, took occasion to say that no man who drank could remain on the mounted police force.

CHEERING NEWS FROM TEXAS.

The farmers of Texas are organizing to "oppose the liquor traffic and to assist in all proper ways in driving liquor out of the state." Since farmers are a potent factor in the making of "dry" states, this is a cheering sign of the times for the Lone Star State.

COLORADO BANKS GAIN.

During the six weeks immediately following the adoption of state-wide prohibition the state banks of Colorado made a gain in resources of $1,575,639.89. The real estate dealers say that saloonkeepers and bartenders are buying ranches and truck farms.

BREWERS' VIEW.

"There are even companies and individual employers who threaten to discharge employees for drinking alcohol at any time. They do not care if that is social and economic slavery. Their main object is to protect their pocketbooks."—The Brewers' Journal.

TEMPERANCE REFORM ADVANCE.

"A movement of victorious yesterdays and confident tomorrows." Thus the Union Signal epitomizes the advance of the temperance reform.

"MYSELF AND ME"

This item of verse is handed us with a request for publication. The writer of the lines is unknown, but whoever he is, strikes a responsive chord in the breast of every human being that reads it:

I'm the best pal that I ever had;
I like to be with me;
I like to sit and tell myself
Things confidentially.

I often sit, and ask me
If I shouldn't or I should,
And I find that my advice to me
Is always pretty good.

I never got acquainted with Myself till here of late;
And I find myself a bully chum,
I treat me simply great.

I talk with me and walk with me
And show me right and wrong,
I never know how well myself
And me could get along.

I never try to cheat me,
I'm as truthful as can be;
No matter what may come or go,
I'm on the square with me.

It's great to know yourself and have
A pal that's all your own,
To be such company for yourself
You're never left alone.

You'll try to dodge the masses,
And you'll find a crowd a joke,
If you only treat yourself as well
As you treat other folk.

I've made a study of myself,

LONG AUTO TRAIN

MEANS PROSPERITY

Prosperity Special, Consisting of 80 Cars and Bearing 220 Automobiles, Passes Through Altoona.

Another prosperity special of the Buick automobile concern, even larger than the big automobile train of this firm which passed through Altoona several weeks ago, was taken through the yards last Friday. The train consisted of 80 big cars, all loaded with automobiles from the Buick factory at Flint, Mich. In all, 220 automobiles were aboard.

The train arrived in Altoona at 9 o'clock and after the customary change of engines was sent on east. At Harrisburg the train will be broken up and the consignment of automobiles will be sent to different points. A photograph of the train will be taken in the vicinity of Harrisburg.

The prosperity special which passed through Altoona on January 19 consisted of 67 cars, the present train being longer by 13 cars. The value of the 220 automobiles on board is considered over a quarter of a million dollars. The weight is $65,200 pounds. The freight charges from Flint to the destination amounts to $6,721.52.

It is somewhat gratifying to the local Pennsy officials to handle these big trains, as during former years the shipments of the Buick concern were taken over the New York Central. The excellent service in the way of transportation which the Pennsy has been able to offer, has induced the Buick officials to select this route for 1915 in making their big eastern shipments. W. C. Glynn, division freight agent of the Pennsy, with headquarters here had supervision of the movement of the train on this division of the Pennsy.

According to W. H. and L. C. Wolfe agency, the local distributors of the Buick car, the two big shipments of cars to the east so close together, indicated a returning prosperity and additional prosperity specials may be expected during the spring.—Altoona Mirror.

THOMAS LEE MCCLUNG

How vividly do I recall
That thou in youth was friend of all
The boys at Phillips Exeter
Who wore the badge of character.

I see the class room there,
Thy thoughts transparent, quick and rare,
Obliging, and obedient
To self-respecting government.

And out on baseball diamond
Not one knew better honor's bond,
Or felt the thrill of nobler soul
Than thou when near opponent's goal.

From school and college thou went forth
With what was best in South and North,
And in life's battle did thy part
With dash and strength and hero's heart.

Thou came to know the business kings,
Who set thee over greater things,
Where thou didst only that employ
That we saw in thee when a boy.

Thy name shall e'er be dear to us,
Thy deeds meritorious,
So long as men love to have sung
The deeds of souls like Lee McClung.

In that celestial, blessed home,
Which they obtain who overcome,
May classmates meet thee once again,
And talk of past like full grown men.
—Wilson R. Buxton, '88.

Rev. Wilson R. Buxton, a former Bedford County boy, and for four and a half years a beneficiary of the Job Mann Fund, and now pastor of the Congregational Church at South Ashburnham, Mass., has for over three years devoted his spare time to the preparation of a work covering the entire struggle between slavery and freedom in America that culminated in the Civil War and the reconstruction period. The work is patriotic and spirited. There will be twelve divisions, the eighth, which is just completed, being entitled "The Battle of Gettysburg." Mr. Buxton comes naturally by his interest in this great theme, he having been born one month previous to the first Bull Run battle. His oldest brother served three and a half years in the war.

Pleasant Evening

Last Saturday evening a surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bridgman, near Imletown. All enjoyed themselves playing various games and music. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Price, Mr. and Mrs. John Imbler, Mr. and Mrs. W. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Dively, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beegle, Mr. and Mrs. William Bridgman, Mrs. Levi Imbler, Mrs. David Shunk, Mrs. W. R. Border, Misses Mary Koontz, Essie Imbler, Lula Stickler, Ruth Mock, Ethel Border, Lillian and Margaret Fletcher, Virginia Russell, Mary Shunk, Eva Bridgman, Arvilla Price; Charles Heming, Neal Imbler, Ransom Reighard, George Russell, Edward Imbler, Irvin Laman, Charles Fletcher, Lloyd Beegle, Robert Reighard, Lloyd Shunk, Reed Beegle, John, William and James Bridgman and Woodrow Price.

BLIND NEED HELP

Association Aids in Disposing of Needlework by Blind Women. Readers of this paper who have wanted to help the blind now have an opportunity to give practical aid by responding to an appeal of the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind to help it dispose of a large accumulation of towels hemmed by blind women.

These tea towels are of the finest crash and the association is asking friends to help by buying in dozen or half dozen lots at $1.80 per dozen or 90c the half dozen. Towels of the quality of these never sold anywhere for less. The blind workers get all the proceeds less the wholesale cost of the goods.

Suggestion is made that solicitation of orders among friends would directly aid the blind as many sightless women in the State who can do nothing else are dependent upon the ability of the association to sell their product. Price lists of other needlework by blind women will be sent on application. Checks or communications can be addressed to the association at its headquarters, Second and Liberty Avenues, Pittsburgh, Pa. Visitors are always welcome to the workshop for the blind at that place.

"So you are going to be married, Mary?"

"Yes, ma'am, and I'll be leaving you next Tuesday."

"Well, I hope you are getting a good husband."

"If he ain't any better than the one you've got I won't keep him long."—Detroit Free Press.

Teacher—Now, who can tell me which travels fastest—heat or cold? Johnny Bright—Heat, of course; anybody can catch a cold.

Fascinating Spring Modes

Boleros and Short Skirts Combine in Jaunty Costumes

TURKISH TROUSER SKIRTS

New York March 1, 1915.
With the first breath of Spring weather, costumes begin to take on Spring-like colorings. Hats in gayer colors or trimmed with bright flowers and feathers announce to the world that Spring has returned, even when the suit or dress remains of the somber colors of winter.

Covert cloth has been the novelty in winter suits and is very popular in the spring, for it is light in color and combines with many things. A new cloth called buck-skin covert is the newest of this type.

A few days ago I received announcement cards from a Fifth Avenue dress-making establishment, of a private view of their newest models. From the general salesrooms I was guided into a gray and gold elevator and from there to an artistic room also in gray and white and gold. The simplest of small stages occupied one side of the room. A few chairs were placed carelessly around the room, and we made ourselves comfortable for the review.

A Smart New Coat on Empire Lines

Boleros were the most striking features shown. Short little bobby, sleeveless jackets, some cut square and straight around, others scalloped or slashed. These were worn over full blouses which bloused a trifle over the belt or girdle instead of being pulled straight down. Most of these were long-sleeved, while others had the bell sleeves, three-quarter or half-length, wide and unbound at the lower edge.

The skirts were full and short, most of them being built on peasant lines, with full apron-like overskirts front and back, divided on the sides and showing a plain or ruffled underskirt beneath.

Another noticeable feature in these dresses was the fact that they were all made with a normal waistline, an interesting fact when one thinks of all the long-waisted and Empire lines which are shown as forerunners of Spring and Summer fashions. It is a fact that the frocks made on Empire lines are decidedly for the girl's figure while the round-waisted frocks suit all styles of figure more or less.

Another type of costume shown here was taken from the 15th Century French costumes. The waist was in double effect, slashed several times front and back through which the creamy white chignon blouse peeped. A short pleated peplum finished the lower edge of the waist. This was worn over a full skirt with a pleated ruffle on the bottom. An interesting thing to remember is that these pleated ruffles which are used on the bottom of so many skirts are pressed flat and put on the lower edge without a heading of any kind.

In these dresses the long tunic was shown in many different styles. Sometimes with a pleated lower skirt showing just below, and again with an underskirt of filmy lace.

One of these frocks I will describe in detail. The skirt had a long blue tunic striped with a thread of yellow and crossed with a satin stripe. This was slashed up about eight inches and faced upon the upper side with plain blue. The pleated underskirt of plain blue just peeped out from beneath the tunic.

A short bolero jacket slashed and bound with plain blue is worn over a white chignon blouse with a narrow pleat down the center having a narrow frill on either side. The long sleeves had deep flaring cuffs of the striped silk with a frill of the chignon around its edge. The collar of the blouse was very high with a frill of chignon above and below.

Another little dress which sported a short bolero jacket and chignon blouse having deep bell sleeves of the chignon, had a skirt which showed a new evolution of the tunic skirt. The skirt was of blue chignon taffeta with two box-pleatings around the bottom. The skirt was the full length in the back, but the front was the depth of the two box-pleated ruffles shorter, and beneath were two box-pleated frills of white chignon. The effect was stunning.

Contrast is a strong note in the color combinations of the season. Many dark jackets were shown with white or light colored skirts. Wide leather belts were used on some of the dresses. One white serge dress had a red patent leather belt which was very effective indeed.

A white chignon afternoon dress showed the raglan sleeves with surplice fronts of filet lace and a loose panel of the filet lace in the back. The unusual skirt was made of chignon with three graduated bands of shirred silk applied. Each band was shirred upon a cord top and bottom which gave the band a very pretty finish.

A mode which is having quite a vogue and is both graceful and effective has been inspired by the Turkish trousers. This dress, however, is not a trouser skirt, far be it! There is a foundation skirt made shorter than the outside skirt and the lower edge of the outside skirt is gathered and caught to the lower edge of the underskirt and the skirt itself is bloused, if that term can be used, all around the bottom. The dress which I saw having a skirt like this had a very wide belt with large round disks or moons embroidered on it in red and silver and gold.

The New Basque Effect the Feature of This Costume

A coat and a dress showing the long and the short-waisted effects are shown in the illustrations. The coat in diagonal blue serge, with full skirt and belt with pockets upon each side is a late and practical model for the Spring coat. In the illustration the coat is worn with a sand-colored skirt.

In plain and moire taffeta is the dress illustrated made in the latest basque effect. The bodice is given the long-waisted appearance by a panel front which is cut in one with a wide crushed girdle. This fits around the waist and hips rather closely combining very well with the full flaring skirt.

On many of these dresses where a little color is needed to give the proper note for contrast a corsage bouquet was used. There are many different kinds of these flowers, those made from velvet or silk or chignon and those made of ribbon. The newest ones show a picot edging and are often made of picot edged ribbon.

The trimming on some of the early Spring hats is very simple, often being but a strip of narrow ribbon, usually ally grograin, with a strand of beads, in dull white, blue or other dull color which will form a pleasing contrast placed just above it.

New handkerchiefs are showing narrow-colored frills around their edge of pink or blue or violet. The very sheerest of linen is used for those handkerchiefs and the result is fluffy and dainty.

SPECTACULAR CRIME

The death in Missouri of Frank James, who, though never convicted of crime, was reputed to be a member of the famous James gang of outlaws, who were charged years ago with so many desperate acts, raises the question whether the big bank and train robberies of 30 years ago are as common today.

As a whole, crime seems decidedly on the increase. But the big crime acts of a generation ago, which so fired the imagination of the outlaw class, may be too daring for the modern sneak burglar and footpad.

Bank robbery can not be as profitable as it used to be. Electric and steel protection has made large banks impregnable. Here and there a small country bank might be ripped open. But the returns would not be sufficient for the risk.

A highly explosive state of society pervaded many sections at the time the James gang were active. Gun toting was general. The guns were not carried for ornament, but for real use. Celerity in pulling them and accuracy in using them was an essential element in a gentleman's education.

These conditions developed very daring and resolute men, quick in decision and rapid in execution. A train robbery was no carefully planned stroke of business, but a sudden lawless impulse. The life of the plains of 30 to 40 years ago developed many a character perfectly capable of these acts at any time he felt the need of cash.

Train robbery does not seem attractive to the sneak criminal of today. He is looking for what seems more like a sure thing. Sleeping people in their beds, unarmed pedestrians in dark corners of great cities, houses left alone and unlocked in daylight, these are the favorites. They are much safer than a heavy train where express messengers and others are apt to be armed, and where the telephone and telegraph flashes the news far and wide and quickly summons bands of officers to search the country.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Birthday Party

Thursday evening, February 18, Mrs. William Adams of Osterburg gave a party in honor of her daughter Beulah's 14th birthday. The following persons were present: Mrs. D. Berkheimer, Mrs. S. G. Kauffman, Mrs. William Adams and little sons, Paul and Francis Adams; Misses Luella and Olive Crissman, Amanda Ickes, Geneva and Ruth Mahan, Edna Kauffman, Nellie and Lillie Acker, Virgie Beam, Katharine Stambaugh, Harriet Hann, Mary and Ada Ake, Marie Fickes, Florence and Janet Hochard, Mary Gouchonour, Nellie Jones, Beulah and Lynda Price; Harry Beam, James and Roy Fetter, Alton Crissman, John and Lewis Geisler, Sherman Croyle, Fay Ehredt, Chester Wallace, Clarence and Walter Kauffman, Clarence Ickes, Earl Campbell, Stanton Hann. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was spent. Many beautiful gifts were received, which were very much appreciated by the recipient.

The Split Log Drag

The split log drag has contributed more toward the economic maintenance of public highways than any implement of modern usage. It does not require special acts of the legislature, bond issues nor expensive educational campaigns to make it available as usually precedes construction work. A drag can be built or purchased for twenty dollars and is easily operated by any one who can drive a team. We need more drags in this State.

The school teacher with the eagle eye saw a little girl chewing gum. "Mary," she commanded, "put that into the wastebasket." The child looked as though she would like to obey but couldn't. "Did you hear me?" insisted the teacher. "Put that wad of gum into the wastebasket immediately." "Please, teacher, I'd like to, but I can't," was the quivering reply. ## A Wonderful Healing Influence in Kidney Troubles

A year and a half ago I was taken with a severe attack of kidney trouble that pained me to such an extent that morphine had to be given me. Was attended by a doctor who pronounced it as Stone in the Bladder and prescribed Lithia Water. I took Lithia Water and Tablets for some time and received no relief from them. I stopped taking medicines for some time, later having some Swamp-Root in the house I decided to try it and felt much relieved. While taking the second bottle commenced to pass Gravel in urine until I had passed in all at least a half dozen or more and have not suffered the slightest since—and in all have taken one bottle and a half and feel very grateful to Swamp-Root.

Yours very truly,
H. W. SPINKS,

WAS A PROUD DAD

But Wise Aunt Punctured the Whole Plot.

Since his marriage, fourteen months ago, Charles Kirk's one ambition has been to be the father of a bouncing boy, and several months ago his pretty wife of twenty whispered something to him when he returned one evening to his home, No. 65 Chestnut Street, Weehawken, N. J., which pleased him immensely. He kissed her effusively and told her he was very happy.

Wednesday evening when Kirk came from the Tietjan & Lang Shipyard, where he is a foreman, his sister-in-law, Miss Dorothy Wrenn, met him at the door and whispered: "It's a splendid, beautiful boy and he is going to be Charlie, Jr."

The sister-in-law had attended Mrs. Kirk, he was informed, after a Passaic physician left.

Aunt Punctures the Plot

"She is doing splendidly," Kirk was told. "But you can only have a peep at the baby now. Don't try to pick him up or wake him. It won't do. He's too young."

So Kirk had to content himself with a peep. Then he went out to spread the glad tidings. The news reached his aunt, Mrs. William Verdon, wife of a Republican leader of Hoboken, and such was her surprise that she went to have a look at her nephew's son Thursday.

It might be explained that Mrs. Verdon knows all about children. When the coverlet was thrown back and she saw the baby she gasped:

"Was this child born with all this hair? This is no new born baby. What does this mean? This child looks to be two or three months old."

For answer Mrs. Kirk bounced out of bed and told her aunt-in-law that it was not her baby at all, adding: "But Charlie wanted a baby so badly that I decided to get him one."

Mrs. Kirk said that on Wednesday she went to a Mrs. Nelson in East One Hundred and Twenty-Fifth Street, Manhattan, and adopted the infant. She brought him home with her and then the stage was set, so Kirk was to be declared a proud and happy father.

While this explanation was being made, in came Kirk, beaming in anticipation of seeing his son. The aunt told him he had been deceived and was not a father at all.

He's No Foundling Asylum

Kirk waited to hear no more, picked up the baby and made haste for the Weehawken Police Station. Captain Kessler was at the desk.

"Take this kid," said Kirk as he placed the infant before the Police Captain. "He isn't mine. I don't know whose he is. Take him."

After hearing of the deception practiced on Kirk by his wife, who simply wanted to make him happy, the Captain said:

"But say; this is a police station. It's no foundling asylum."

"Can't help that," answered Kirk. "I'm no foundling asylum either."

He was persuaded to take the infant back home, and yesterday he and his wife took the child back to Mrs. Nelson.

"It's a shame we couldn't get away with it," Mrs. Kirk said last night to a reporter for The World. "We could have got away with it too if it hadn't been for Mrs. Verdon's knowledge of babies. Charlie never would have known and I never would have told him. He doesn't know anything about babies, and its having hair wouldn't have worried him in the least. He would have been proud of the hair. Poor Charlie!"

There is no other article in America so universally and favorably talked about as the Ford Car.

There is no other one article for which owners are such enthusiastic boosters as are the owners of Ford Cars. You find them everywhere—in the busy marts of trade; on the transatlantic liners; on the steamers for South America; on the limited express trains and on the highways and byways of the country.

And everywhere you meet one, he is enthusiastic about his Ford Car. It is what the people want.
